

Steele Family Bursary Application Form

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT AWARDS

The David Collins Leukaemia Foundation of Tasmania calls for applications for professional development bursaries in blood cancer treatment.

Applications are open to Tasmanian health professionals working in day chemotherapy units Statewide.

Awards up to $1,500 will be given to assist applicants to participate in or organise an approved conference or seminar recognised by their appropriate peer organisation and directly related to the improvement of blood cancer treatment or patient support. Awards may be used to assist with conference registration and accommodation, but excludes air fares and travel. However, airfares for invited speakers will be considered.

APPLICATIONS CLOSE

- ▶ 1 March 2020 and must include full costing and be accompanied by letters of support from two referees.
- ▶ Email applications to: The Secretary
enquiries@leukaemia-tasmania.com.au

Preference will be given to applicants:

- ▶ Who demonstrate that the knowledge and skills acquired will be shared with their Tasmanian colleagues and others concerned with blood cancer treatment or support
- ▶ Who propose co-funding arrangements (e.g. part employee, part employer)
- ▶ With a subject matter focus on patient care and/or new technical skills e.g. emerging technologies and therapies relevant to this field of haematology.

Successful applicants will be:

- ▶ Required to provide a brief plain English written report for possible release to Tasmanian media and publication in the DCLFT Newsletter
- ▶ Expected to accept an invitation, within a reasonable time, from DCLFT to attend a meeting of members and discuss in a relaxed environment the benefits to patients and staff arising from their Award.
